

Volunteer Canada provides its members with a robust suite of tangible benefits.

Take a look at what some of our members have to say:

“In the years that I have been connected, two significant things stand out. First is the benefit of access to insurance. Since funding for 67 per cent of non-profits with budgets under $100,000 is a serious consideration, the fact that our membership allows us to access both Directors’ and Officers’ Liability and Office insurance at rates about 50 per cent less than anything we could resource elsewhere is HUGE! The second, equally important benefit to me is that, as a very small non-profit in a very big pool, very far away from the hub (Okanagan Valley, BC, instead of Ontario or Quebec) I feel heard and valued. I have had access to staff that have done their best to answer my questions and hear, and act on, my concerns where possible. Response has been prompt and I feel that I have had opportunity to develop a little bit of relationship so that I am known as an individual and a partner. That’s important to me, since I work with community members who themselves are “little” and “distant” in others’ eyes because of their health and mobility challenges and I want them to feel they are important and valued. Volunteer Canada has spoken my language – Value individuals. Meet needs. Build relationship. Thanks!”

Having a membership provides an opportunity to be included in the latest trends in the sector, availability of exceptional tools & resources as well as supporting an organization leading the dialogue on volunteering in Canada.”*

“Initially, Breast Cancer Action became a Volunteer Canada member because they are affiliated with an insurance company that offers competitive rates. Even with the membership fees factored in, we still save a substantial amount annually. What we did not anticipate were the perks that came with a membership such as an informative newsletter and a fabulous free preview of Ajah Fundtracker with a discounted rate for Volunteer Canada members. I would recommend Volunteer Canada to any non-profit organization.”
