

Tuesday, August 13, 2013

In this issue:

- Share your "Giving Moments" of Canada
- Are you Canada's next community idol?
- Microsoft YouthSpark grants: 2013 RFP now open
- We've moved!

Share your "Giving Moments" of Canada

As part of a new initiative to increase giving of all kinds in Canada, the My Giving Moment campaign is looking for Canadians willing to share what inspired them to give their time, skills and money – whether in big amounts or small amounts. These "Moments" will form the basis of a national TV and online campaign debuting this fall, and featuring real Canadian "givers."

So if you've got a moment that inspired some giving, or know someone who does, and would like to possibly share it, check out this link or send it to someone. Don't wait too long! The deadline for applications is August 14th, 2013.

Are you Canada's next community idol?

Community Foundations of Canada is on the lookout for volunteers who are passionate about their community to star in their national TV and radio campaigns ads. Auditions are being held on YouTube until August 30 and winners will be flown to Toronto to star in the ad campaign. Click here for more information.

Microsoft YouthSpark grants: 2013 RFP now open

Over the next two years, Microsoft Canada will be awarding cash and software grants to eligible CRA-registered non-profit and charitable organizations. The funding will be aimed at closing the divide between Canadian youth who have the access, skills and opportunities to be successful and those who do not. This initiative seeks to support grantees with demonstrated expertise in innovative approaches in their efforts to connect youth to opportunities for education, employment and entrepreneurship. For more information and to apply, click here.

News
from Volunteer Canada

Nouvelles
de Bénévoles Canada

We've moved!

We are now located at:

Volunteer Canada
275 Bank St., Suite 400
Ottawa ON K2P 2L6

Please update your contact information when you have a moment.