

Thursday, April 24, 2014

In this issue:

- Share your feedback on National Volunteer Week 2014
- Member-exclusive Code Audit now available

---

Share your feedback on National Volunteer Week 2014

What were your favourite aspects of National Volunteer Week 2014? What do you think could have been better? With the NVW 2014 campaign wrapped up, Volunteer Canada would love to hear your feedback to help plan for National Volunteer Week 2015. Our post-campaign survey will only take about 10 minutes to complete, and your responses are invaluable to us. If you plan on taking the survey, please do so by Thursday, May 15.

Member-exclusive Code Audit

The Canadian Code for Volunteer Involvement serves as a framework for organizations for involving volunteers. The Code Audit helps you assess and analyze the way your organization involves volunteers, and helps identify areas for further development. Completing the Code Audit will generate reflection and action to increase the positive impact of your volunteer program on the mission of your organization and on your volunteers.

If you have already adopted the Code, the Code Audit can be used to assess your progress in meeting the Code Standards. If you have not adopted the Code, it can be used as part of a process to formally adopt it.

Volunteer Canada is pleased to offer this online tool exclusively to members. Click here to learn more about membership with Volunteer Canada.